

IRONMAN 70.3 LIUZHOU Sunday,14th April,2019

Also called The Dragon City, Liuzhou is located in the north-central area of the Guangxi Zhuang Autonomous Region and the northern edge of China's subtropical zone. Liuzhou is as much a well-developed, modern city of industry as one of culture, history, and natural beauty. Encircled by green mountains and embraced by the Liu Jiang River, Liuzhou is known as "The World's Best Natural Bonsai".

The night view of Liujing River is also breathtaking, whether that view you see when you are on the cruise or walking on the shore. The redbuds flower, spicy and delicious Liuzhou rice noodles, and enthusiastic festive atmosphere all appeal to the visitors. It has been praised by Chinese poets, and named one of the most innovative, beautiful, and leisure-friendly cities in China.

IRONMAN 70.3 Liuzhou will begin with a swim from Jiangbin Park. Spectators will have a unique opportunity to watch this point-to-point swim from the elevated banks of the river and nearby bridge. Athletes will then exit the water to the transition. Transitions, IRONMAN Village and finish will be located in Yaobu Ancient Town. From Yaobu Ancient Town, athletes can expect incredible views as they parallel the Liujiang River on this rolling course with smooth, clean road surfaces. It's a good chance to check the results of the winter training, as the first IRONMAN 70.3 race of 2019 in China.

The 2019 IRONMAN 70.3 Liuzhou will have 25 qualifying slots for the 2019 IRONMAN World Championship and 50 qualifying slots for the 2019 IRONMAN 70.3 World Championship available. Eligible athletes receiving a slot can either accept a slot to the IRONMAN World Championship or a slot to the IRONMAN 70.3 World Championship (but not both).

The race gained broad praise when IRONMAN 70.3 took place in Liuzhou for the first time in 2017. The swim course is downstream, bike course and run course are not only beautiful, but flat. As such, IRONMAN 70.3 Liuzhou hit the 2017 IRONMAN 70.3 Athletes' Choice Awards of "Overall Bike" No.5 and "Will Attend Next Year" No.6.

Some athletes commented:

—"I LOVED this bike course! Completely closed, people making that happen, the course, the roads all in excellent shape. I would race again in China in a second."

—"Being in a new place in the world was an incredible experience. I was doing something I love and having a terrific experience in a stunning location. Well done."
